No contractor or other discounts apply unless expressly set forth on the face of this document. No credit terms apply unless expressly set forth on the face of this document. Any sales taxes will be reflected on the face of this document and added to the total purchase price.

3. Terms of Delivery. Unless the purchaser and Harrington agree in writing otherwise, all shipments are F.O.B. point of original shipment. The refused returns will be returned to the purchaser. Goods returned to the purchaser for failure to observe this policy shall remain the purchaser's responsibility.

10. Failure to Notify Voids Limited Warranty. Purchaser's failure to promptly notify Harrington of unsatisfactory operation, defects or any improper or unauthorized installation, maintenance, use, repair, or adjustments, shall terminate the limited one year warranty and shall relieve Harrington from any further responsibility thereunder.

14. Limitation of Liability. Harrington's cumulative maximum liability under this agreement arising from any cause whatsoever, including but not limited to breach of contract, quasi-contract, tort (including negligence), strict liability, any other statutory remedy, breach of warranty, or any other cause or form of action whatsoever will not exceed the purchase price.

15. Catalog. All information, recommendations and suggestions appearing in Harrington's catalog are based upon tests and data believed to be reliable. However, it is the purchaser's responsibility to determine the suitability of Harrington's products for each application. Harrington does not accept responsibility for the accuracy of the information contained in its catalog. Harrington reserves the right to change the prices set forth in its catalog at any time and without notice to the purchaser or other customers. The catalog is not a part of this agreement.

16. Breach and Remedies. Any failure by the purchaser to tender full payment when due, or any wrongful rejection or repudiation of the Harrington Terms and Conditions shall constitute a material breach, and shall entitle Harrington to pursue any or all of its remedies under the Uniform Commercial Code and applicable state law. Harrington's remedies are cumulative and shall include without limitation: (a) Withholding delivery of products; (b) Stopping delivery by the carrier; (c) Reselling the products and recovering damages; (d) Recovering damages for nonacceptance and/or nonpayment; (e) Cancelling this agreement; and, (f) Reclaiming delivered products.

17. No Waiver. Any delay or failure by Harrington to enforce or pursue any or all of its remedies upon a breach by purchaser shall not be construed as a waiver of Harrington's rights under this agreement or applicable state law. Any waiver of Harrington's rights or claims under this agreement must be in writing signed by Harrington and given in exchange for valuable consideration.

18. Assignment and Delegation. No right or interest under this agreement may be assigned by either party without the written consent of the other party. No duty or obligation under this agreement may be delegated by either party without the written consent of the other party. Any assignment or delegation not consented to in writing is void.

19. Entire Agreement. The Harrington Terms and Conditions set forth herein and the Harrington Credit Application, if applicable, constitute the entire agreement between purchaser and Harrington and supersede any prior or contemporaneous representations or agreements, written or oral. No additional oral or written terms, including any attempts by purchaser to modify the Harrington Terms and Conditions or any other document relating to this sales, shall become a part of this agreement without the express written consent of Harrington.

20. Severability. If any part of this agreement is deemed unenforceable for any reason, the remainder of the agreement and the Harrington Terms and Conditions shall remain in full force and effect.

21. Governing Law. This agreement shall be construed under and controlled in all respects by the law of the state in which Harrington's distributing warehouse, from which purchaser made his purchase, is located. 22. Headings. All headings are organizational devices only. They are not intended by the parties to have any legal import.

23. Attorney's Fees. In the event that any action or proceeding is brought to enforce Harrington's rights under or arising from this agreement, Harrington shall be entitled to its actual attorney's fees and court costs, unless the law of the forum state requires that the prevailing party or either party be entitled to attorney's fees, in which event the Harrington Terms and Conditions are modified to incorporate the forum state's requirements.

24. Acceptance of Terms and Conditions of Sale. Harrington's performance is conditioned upon purchaser's assent to the Harrington Terms and Conditions. Harrington hereby gives notice of its objection to any additional or different terms or conditions contained in any purchaser acceptance, purchase order, acknowledgement, or other document.
